

MRS. MERRILL IS HOSTESS AT FRIDAY AFFAIR

Mrs. Leslie S. Merrill was hostess at a pretty tea on Friday afternoon at her home on Harrison avenue in honor of her two sisters-in-law, Mrs. Fred S. Schow of Washington, D. C. and Mrs. Franklin J. Peterson of Ogden.

Assisting in receiving were Mrs. David W. Henderson of Salt Lake, Mrs. David Wilson and Mrs. John Culley. Presiding at the tea table were Mrs. Warner Arthur, Mrs. Albert H. Aland, Mrs. Frank Browning and Mrs. William H. Reeder, Jr.

The decorations in the dining room were in orange and cream. The table was laid with a cut work cloth over orange and centered with a silver basket of French marigolds. Orange shaded lights were used and orange candles in silver holders were on the buffet. The living rooms were decorated with brilliant fall flowers in wicker baskets.

During the afternoon a program of music was given by a trio composed of Mrs. Doris Prouditt Fetscher, Mrs. W. J. Hillabrant and Miss Phyllis Prouditt.

Out of town guests included Miss Naomi Deal of Los Angeles, Mrs. David W. Henderson, Mrs. Leslie Paul, Mrs. John L. Parkinson, Mrs. J. B. Robbins, Mrs. Alfridge Evans, and Mrs. Elizabeth McFarland of Salt Lake; Mrs. Ruel Eskelson, Mrs. William Fife, Mrs. Wesley Horsley, Mrs. R. Kaiser, Mrs. Nephi Hansen, Mrs. William Glover, Mrs. Lamont Glover, Miss Miriam Horsley, Miss Esther Horsley and Miss Maud Glover of Brigham City; Mrs. Joseph R. Jensen of Logan and Mrs. James Russell Young of Pocatello.

Bridge tables were placed in the upstairs ballroom for the entertainment of the out-of-town guests. During the afternoon there were one hundred and sixty callers.

SURPRISE PARTY IN W. O. W. HALL

A surprise party was given Tuesday evening in the Woodman hall by the employes of the yard office and the yard of the O. U. I. & D. company in honor of Henry Fisher, who has retired after 39 years of service.

The following program was given:

Address of welcome, F. H. Smith; address of welcome, A. E. Edson; vocal solo, Mrs. Florence Fisher Herrick; address, J. F. Chamberlin; vocal solo, J. W. Ramey; reading, R. P. Chumley; Weber quartet, Messrs. Hales, Nelson, Blackburn, Wakefield; tumblers, T. Boyd, H. Stewart, D. W. Liddell; vocal solo, Mrs. Florence Fisher Herrick; one-man orchestra, Charley Kenley.

After the program a miniature freight train was drawn across the hall for Mr. Fisher to check, and he found in one of the cars a handsome bill folder filled with currency, also a life membership in the clerks' union of which he is a member.

Refreshments were served to the 125 guests present.

MRS. ELI LUND IS HOSTESS TO CLUB

Mrs. Eli Lund, 1074 Twenty-first street, entertained her club Wednesday afternoon. An enjoyable time was passed in playing games. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. H. G. Hutchings, Mrs. Horace Farr, Mrs. Kenneth Jones. Those present were Mrs. Caroline Bradley, Mrs. E. A. Wilson, Mrs. K. E. Greenley, Mrs. Fred Edson, Mrs. Kenneth Jones, Mrs. E. R. Geist, Mrs. Charles Cottle, Mrs. L. W. Farr, Mrs. Carl Jensen, Mrs. Thomas Clark, Miss Mabel Clark, Mrs. Frank Bingham, Mrs. Horace Farr, Mrs. H. G. Hutchings. Lunch was served by the hostess and her daughter, Myrtle.

ARTIST CONCERT SERIES PLANNED

The MacDowell ensemble announces an artist series of four concerts to be presented the coming season in Ogden. Definite information regarding artists' names together with dates of their appearance will be available within a few days.

Owing to the fact that each of the artists will be en route to the coast to fill important engagements, it has been possible for the local amateur club to secure those who otherwise might not be available.

WEDDING PARTY GUESTS AT DINNER

The wedding of Miss Martha Bassett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Bassett of Denver, formerly of Salt Lake, to Ferrin Whitaker, took place Thursday in the Salt Lake temple. The bride is a niece of Mrs. LeRoy Eccles and was a frequent visitor in Ogden before the family moved to Colorado.

On Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. Eccles were entertained at dinner in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Whitaker at their home on Twenty-fifth street. Only members of the family were present and covers were laid for thirty.

The guests were seated at one long table, centered with yellow garden flowers and green tapers were in crystal holders. Following the dinner the party attended the dance given by Miss Marjorie and Miss Elizabeth Brewer at the Hermitage.

MISS EDNA CRAGUN IS BRIDE OF WEEK

Mr. and Mrs. M. Cragun announce the marriage of their daughter, Edna Lucie, and David Sterling Wheelwright, Wednesday, August 18, at the Salt Lake temple. Mrs. Wheelwright is one of the leading vocalists of the city and was the soprano soloist in the rendition of "Elijah," given in June in the Ogden bowl. Mr. Wheelwright has been the organist at the Congregational church for the past three years. Mr. and Mrs. Wheelwright will leave early in September for Northwestern university at Chicago, where they will pursue their musical studies.

BRIDGE DIVERSION AT FRIDAY PARTY

Friday evening at their home on Twenty-first street, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Woods entertained informally for the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Woods, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Deming, Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Woods of Salt Lake, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Kirkendall and Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Smith of Ogden.

Bridge was the diversion for the evening and luncheon was served on small tables.

ENTERTAINS FOR VISITING GUESTS

Mrs. L. W. Overstreet has as her guests, Miss Mary Westbrooke of Jonesboro, Arkansas, Miss Annie Camp of Warren, Arkansas, and Miss Pauline Camp of Malson, Wis. The Misses Camp are en route home from Berkeley.

Mrs. Overstreet entertained at an evening bridge party for her guests on Thursday. Gladoll and sweet peas in the pastel shades were used for decorations. Miss June Emley and Mrs. Leslie Mann carried off the honors at cards and the house guests were presented with favors.

Those present included the Messdames Chester Kerr, T. Don Beason, Fred Voll, Jr., M. J. Seidner, Leslie Mann, Rose Whitley, J. L. Campbell, W. B. Kerr, Neil Stanford, Sterling Price, F. H. Smith; the Misses Mary Neff, Margaret Prout, Rosa Mosteller, June Emley, Viola Clancy, Bertha Wolff, Emma Pidgeck, Morine Campbell and Mary Fisher.

MRS. D. L. BOYLE DINNER HOSTESS

Lavender sweet peas lent charm to a dinner party given by Mrs. Daniel L. Boyle at her home Saturday, August 14, in honor of two Chicago visitors, the Misses Ruth and Ann Vendley, college friends of Miss Catherine M. M. Boyle.

The guests, all classmates of Miss Boyle at the Sacred Heart academy of Ogden, were the following: Ruth Boyle, Margaret Baker, Mrs. Jack Conroy, Mrs. Elmer Higginbotham, Eileen Hanley, Madelyn Kellher, Kathryn Krauss, Margaret McCarty, Ruth McBride, Jerry O'Neill and Lillian O'Neill, and Ruth and Ann Vendley of Chicago.

The hostess was assisted by Mrs. P. C. Krauss and Mrs. R. T. Major.

MISS RETA PACKER MARRIED SATURDAY

The Nordquist home on Harrieville avenue was the scene of a pretty wedding on Saturday evening when Miss Reta Packer and Arville A. Nordquist were married with President Joseph E. Ririe officiating in the presence of relatives and a few close friends.

The house was decorated throughout with beautiful fall flowers. The bride wore a gown of tan georgette and Miss Ada Foutz, the maid of honor, was dressed in champagne-colored georgette. Alton Nordquist acted as best man. The evening was passed with music and games. Mrs. Joseph Ririe and Mrs. Edna Dineen gave vocal selections, and Miss Margaret Nordquist gave several readings.

During the evening refreshments were served. Mr. and Mrs. Nordquist will make their home in California.

SISTER SUPERIOR BACK FROM EAST

Sister M. Allotte, superior of Sacred Heart academy, returned from the Mother House of the Sisters of the Holy Cross at Notre Dame, Ind., on Thursday afternoon, bringing with her a number of the sisters who will be resident at the academy during the coming year. Among the new members of the faculty are Sister M. Magella, who will have charge of the department of voice and Sister M. Arladne, an artist of eminent ability who will open art classes in oil, water color, ceramics, modeling and designing.

Sister Magella has studied and taught music in various schools in the east for a number of years. Sister Arladne has just completed a special art course with Prof. Thompson of Boston. Both are eminently equipped for the departments of which they will have direction and will afford unusual opportunities for pupils who have the privilege of studying under their direction.

MRS. HILLABRANT GIVES LUNCHEON

Mrs. W. J. Hillabrant entertained at the third of a series of luncheons on Tuesday at her home on Van Buren avenue. The living room and porches were bright with baskets of gay garden flowers.

In the dining room, where luncheon was served, pink sweet peas and blue delphinium were used on the table and buffet. The hostess was assisted by Miss Adela Ash-ten, who sang several selections.

The list included the Messdames George Whitmeyer, Andrew T. Clark, Owen Cutler, Walter J. Morgan, Hebert Hinte, Earl McClanahan, Hans Aabel and Murray Whitney.